Dear Parents/Carers

We hope you and your children have settled into the new school term - it's certainly been a busy time. Next week is even busier so here are a few dates for your diaries:

On Tuesday 29th September, Foxglove class will be taking a short trip to the church in Farrington Gurney Methodist Church to learn about Harvest. This will take place after the usual morning drop off and the children will be back to school for lunch as usual. There is no charge for this trip.

On Friday 2nd October, Foxglove class will be heading out to the Bath Forum to take part in the Bath Literature Children's Festival. They will be involved in an interactive schools workshop led by Liz Pichon, the best selling author of the Tom Gates series of books.

Our coach will leave school at 12.00 and arrive in Bath, ready for a 1pm start. We will return to Chilcompton in time for the end of the school day at 3.15pm.

Due to the timings of this workshop, we will be leaving school during lunchtime so all children will need to bring their own packed lunch in a small rucksack.

The children will be expected to wear their usual school uniform for this trip and if the weather is bad, a raincoat or similar will be useful for the walk from the coach to the Forum.

The cost of the trip will be 7.50 and this is payable on Arbor before Thursday 1st October.

We are looking forward to an exciting afternoon and can't wait to receive our signed copies of a free book!

Best wishes,

Rosie Warner and Jan Doyle
